

August 21, 2006

DECA/FBLA Advisor,

With the help of Mickey Kosloski, Virginia DECA specialist, the Washington Wizards are inviting all DECA and FBLA members from Maryland, Virginia, and Washington, D.C. to participate in our 6th DECA/FBLA Day with the Washington Wizards on Friday, December 1, 2006!

This event is a sports marketing educational seminar hosted by the Washington Wizards' management team followed by a college fair with schools from the area. DECA and FBLA students and friends will be able to attend this NBA game at a reduced price, and a FREE coupon for food will also be provided, along with admission into special pre-game activities. Last December, over 2,200 students attended in our biggest event ever! Previous speakers at DECA/FBLA Days include:

- Wizards' Team President, Susan O'Malley!
- Wizards' VP of Marketing, Ann Nicolaides!
- Wizards' Head Coach, Eddie Jordan!
- Wizards' TV Commentator and former NBA Star, Phil Chenier!
- Wizards' Stars, Brendan Haywood and Jared Jeffries!

This year's event should be even bigger. Can we surpass 2,500 people? What about 3,000?!

Availability is limited and seating is filled first-come, first-served, so SIGN UP TODAY!

Please see attached for an order form that can be used for your school(s). We recommend that you make all your orders on one form so that we can provide group seating. There are also some great group leader incentives to thank you for coordinating the trip for your students. You can earn VIP tickets, autographed items, or the chance to bring your group back to a game for FREE!

Please email me at pleibman@washsports.com or call my direct line at (202) 628-3200 ext. 3835 to reserve seating for your group in advance. We look forward to seeing you on December 1st when All-Star Gilbert Arenas and the Wizards go up against the Charlotte Bobcats!

Sincerely,

Pete Leibman
Washington Wizards
(202) 628-3200 x. 3835
pleibman@washsports.com