

Lisa Hill Blanton

Ph.D. Emphasis: Occupational and Technical Studies
Career and Technical Education

Program Entrance Date: Fall 2006

Current Job: Graduate Assistant, Old Dominion University
Retired Teacher (Agriculture, Special Education) and former division
Instructional Technology Coordinator.

Projected Job: To obtain a job in higher education or as a consultant/specialist in instructional technology, career education, or special education transition services.

Future Aspirations: I want to finish my Ph.D. and get back to the things that I've had to put aside in order to pursue it. But, along the way, I'll take additional courses in my areas of interest.

Previous Education

College(s)	Study Area	Degree(s)	Year
Longwood University	Curriculum & Instruction – Special Education	M.S.	1991
West Virginia University	Agricultural Education – Horticulture/Prod & Mgmt	B.S.	1984

Presentations

Gardening and Landscaping (various topics) to local and regional garden clubs, 1984 – 1996
Parliamentary Procedure Training to various local groups, 1984 - 1991

Publications

Book Review: Legal Issues in Career and Technical Education. Manuscript submitted for publication.
Workforce Development and the Role of the Rural Community College. Manuscript submitted for publication.
Cumberland County Special Education IEP Handbook and Resource Guide (Editor), 2003
Superintendent's Annual Report (Editor and contributor), 1995 (mailed to every household in the county)
Using Microcomputers in the Agricultural Education Classroom (with Lawrence, L.D.). 1982. Morgantown: West Virginia University

Professional Organizations and Committees

Association for Career and Technical Education Research, 2009
National Association for Professional Women, 2008 to present
National Education Association – Retired, 2008 to present
Virginia Education Association – Retired, 2008 to present
Gold Key International Honor Society, WVU & ODU
Iota Lambda Sigma (Workforce Honorary), ODU
American Society for Training and Development, 2007 to present
Going the Distance (ODU OTS Ph.D. Organization) – member and worked on organization's constitution and bylaws
Adjunct Faculty Member, Southside Virginia Community College, 2004
Virginia Society for Technology in Education, 1997 to present
National Education Association, member, 1986 to 2008
Virginia Education Association, member, 1986 to 2008
Cumberland Education Association, past treasurer and past president, 1986 to 2008
Southside Virginia Regional Technology Consortium member, 1999-2002
Prince William County TechKNOWLEDGEy Academy Facilitator, 1999, 2000
Longwood College Clinical Faculty and Mentor Program, 1999
Adjunct Faculty Member, J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College, 1986, 1987
Collegiate FFA Chapter – WVU, Secretary
Alpha Tau Alpha (Agricultural Education Honorary) – WVU, President
Phi Kappa Phi, WVU

Awards/Achievements

CAFAS Certification, 2007

Highly Qualified in both English and Social Studies – 2006

SASI Certification, 2001

Teacher of the Year, Cumberland High School, 1997

Virginia Education Association's Reggie Smith Leadership Academy, 1992

WVU's College of Agriculture, Resource Management Student of the Year, 1984

