

Maurice T. Frazier

Ph.D. Emphasis: Occupational and Technical Studies
Technology Education

Program Entrance Date: Spring 2005

Current Job: High School Technology Education Teacher, Communications Technology

Projected Job: University Professor in Technology Education

Future Aspirations: Upon finishing my degree, I plan to pursue a position as a university professor in the area of technology education. I hope to do a significant amount of research in the areas of testing, standards, instructional practices, and gender studies. My wife and I hope to start a family in the coming years after my degree. I would also like to own my own business and, of course, do lots of motorcycle riding in my spare time.
