

Michael (Mickey) Glass

Ph.D. Emphasis: Occupational and Technical Studies

Program Entrance Date: Summer 2006

Current Job: Principal and Senior Consultant, eVisory

Projected Job: Working with people with severe disabilities

Future Aspirations: I would like to become the acknowledged leader in the United States for the development of programs for people with severe disabilities. I would also like to use technology in creative ways to provide learning for people with severe disabilities.

Previous Education

College(s)	Study Area	Degree(s)	Year
Northwestern University	Kellogg School of Management
Rochester Institute of Technology	Applied Math and Statistics	M.S.	1983
Rochester Institute of Technology	Photographic Science		1982
Old Dominion University	Education – Chemistry	B.S.	1974

Presentations

Spoke as a Contractor at the Interstate Conference of Employment Security Agencies (ICESA) Conference, Boston, 1995

Publications

Professional Organizations and Committees

Awards/Achievements

Silver Medal, Smithsonian Technology Award for Business, 1999

Was the only Contractor to speak at the ICESA Conference in Boston in 1995

Innovation Award, Eastman Kodak, 1987

