

Vance Albert Kinsey

Ph.D. Emphasis: Occupational and Technical Studies
Human Resources - Training

Program Entrance Date: February 2007

Current Job: Instructor, Naval Sea Systems Command, Lean Six Sigma College
Teach Lean Six Sigma Champion, Green Belt and Black Belt courses for the U.S. Navy.

Projected Job: I plan to remain in government service for the foreseeable future.

Future Aspirations: Within the next four years, I intend to have the following completed: Ph.D. program, Lean Six Sigma Master Black Belt and Project Management Professional (PMP) Certification. In about 12 to 15 years I plan to retire again and join a university in the Midwest as a faculty member to teach, write and conduct research.

Previous Education

College(s)	Study Area	Degree(s)	Year
University of West Florida	Performance Improvement Certification		2003
University of West Florida	Curriculum & Instruction/Adult Education	M.Ed.	2002
Southern Illinois University	Electronics/Management	B.S.	1992

Presentations

Publications

Professional Organizations and Committees

Awards/Achievements

Certified Performance Technologist (CPT) from International Society for Performance Improvement

