Copyright Transfer Form

In order to publish with ISAM, policy requires that full copyright be assigned to ISAM. Execution of this form grants and assigns exclusively to ISAM all rights of copyright: the rights to reproduce and distribute, perform, display, prepare derivative works, and grant third parties permission to reproduce. Specific requirements are noted below.

- This form must be submitted for each paper published by ISAM.
- The form must be fully executed, with all appropriate boxes checked.
- All author signatures must be original. We will not accept forms with proxied signatures (that is, authors cannot sign on behalf of others).
- All author and co-author signatures must be secured. All authors need not sign on the same form; they can submit separate forms.
- Facsimiles are acceptable.

It is the author's responsibility to secure company approvals as may be required for signature on the transfer of copyright form. Government clearance on classified material should be obtained where necessary. If approvals or clearances are involved, the original manuscript should note that these have been obtained. Material not approved or cleared should be omitted from the paper. Also, any necessary permission should be secured by the author for the use of any previously published information included in the paper.

What Material Requires a Copyright Form?
All materials submitted and approved for publication require a copyright form. For example, technical papers, short or forum papers, and extended abstracts require a copyright form.

Where Do I Get the Copyright Form?
Copyright Form can be downloaded from http://www.lions.odu.edu/~averma/IJAMSindex.htm

How to Submit the Copyright Form?
We are currently not accepting electronic signatures so a paper copy of the form, containing all author signatures, can be mailed or faxed. Please note that multiple forms for a single paper are acceptable if authors cannot sign on one form.

When to Submit the Copyright Form?
The copyright transfer form should be submitted along with the final paper. Consult the publication schedule on the website for the specific dates.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Accepted and approved papers will not be processed for publication without receipt of a fully executed and completed form.

Alternate Forms?
If your company does not authorize you to sign the ISAM form or requires a company-specific licensing agreement with ISAM, please contact Alok K. Verma with the details and a proposed agreement.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Such agreements are on a paper-by-paper basis only; ISAM does not accept blanket agreements from organizations for all content issued there from.

Where to Submit the Copyright Form?
The copyright transfer form should be submitted directly to
