

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

of

THE INDEPENDENT FEDERATION OF CHINESE STUDENTS AND SCHOLARS, INC.

August 10, 1989, Amended on October 27, 1989

FIRST: The undersigned, Lianchao Han, whose post office address is 187 Mansfield Street, New Haven, CT 06511, being at least 18 years of age, does hereby form a corporation under and by virtue of the General Corporation Law of the State of Maryland.

SECOND: The name of the corporation is THE INDEPENDENT FEDERATION OF CHINESE STUDENTS AND SCHOLARS, INC. (the Federation).

THIRD: The Federation is to have perpetual existence.

FOURTH: The Federation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational purposes (exempt purposes) within the meaning of Section 170(c)(2) and Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provisions of any future United States internal revenue law (the Code). In particular, and without limiting the foregoing, the Federation shall

- (i) disseminate information and educate the public regarding the democratic movement in China,
- (ii) promote freedom, democracy, the rule of law and human rights in China, and
- (iii) represent the interests of Chinese nationals, especially students and scholars, residing in the United States.

FIFTH: The Federation is not authorized to issue capital stock. The Federation is empowered to receive contributions, gifts, bequests, devises and endowments (which shall be administered and converted or otherwise disposed of by the Federation exclusively for the purposes set forth in Article FOURTH hereof). No part of the assets or net earnings of the Federation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Federation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article FOURTH hereof.

SIXTH: The Federation shall have members, as set forth in the Federation's Bylaws.

SEVENTH: No substantial part of the activities of the Federation shall involve the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the Federation shall not participate in, intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Federation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

EIGHTH: During any period when the Federation is a “private foundation” as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code, the Federation shall not do any of the following:

- (1) Engage in any act of “self-dealing,” as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, which would result in any tax liability under Section 4941(a) of the Code;
- (2) Fail to distribute for the purposes specified in Article FOURTH hereof amounts sufficient to avoid tax liability under Section 4942(a) of the Code;
- (3) Retain any “excess business holdings,” as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, which would result in any tax liability under Section 4943(a) of the Code;
- (4) Fail to exercise ordinary business care and prudence in making investments or make any investment which, under Section 4944 of the Code, would jeopardize the carrying out of any of its exempt purposes and result in any tax liability under Section 4944(a) of the Code; or
- (5) Make any “taxable expenditures,” as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code, which would result in any tax liability under Section 4945(a) of the Code.

NINTH: In the event of termination, dissolution, or winding up of the Federation in any manner or for any reason whatsoever, the directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the proper liabilities of the Federation, dispose of all of the remaining assets of the Federation exclusively to an entity or organization which is then exempt as an organization described in Sections 170(c)(2) and 501(c)(3) of the Code or to more than one such exempt entity or organization, as shall be determined by the Board of Directors of the Federation or, in default of any such determination, by the State of Maryland for exclusively public purposes.

TENTH: The Federation shall be managed by a Board of Directors who shall be elected in the manner provided by the Bylaws of the Federation. The number of directors of the Federation shall be determined by and provided for in the manner set forth in the Bylaws of the Federation, but shall not at any time be more than 20 or less than one. Directors may succeed themselves in office for an unlimited number of terms. The names of the persons or organizations who will serve as the initial directors until their successors have been duly elected and shall qualify are:
